

Eigen Granite (Indoor)

Granite is the second toughest stone in nature. It has been used in construction and decoration for thousands of years. Granite had always been treasured and its usage seen as a sign of wealth.

Eigen Stones products come from our own factories, so we have very tight control over its quality. Customers are guaranteed the best quality and the lowest price possible.

Eigen granite is available in a vast range of colours and finishes. For further details, please visit: www.eigenstones.com
